Jayna is an Archangel... The only life she has ever known is the one in which she teaches souls to fly in Heaven and whispers inspirations to Earth's great artists, aided by a range of dead musicians and celebrated artists. In Heaven, angels exist in a prevailing atmosphere of love, peace, joy and harmonious co-creation, so when she decides to incarnate on Earth in human form, Jayna is in for a few surprises. After a series of challenging life-times, she settles into her final spin of the wheel and prepares to return to Heaven at the completion of her mission. However, during this final lifetime, she has fallen deeply in love with Stephen, the man whose love will force her to question everything she has ever known. How will she find a way to be at peace with a range of human emotions that constantly draw her back towards the Earth? Will she find a way to return for one, last kiss? An exciting story about life after death, twin flames, soul groups, angels and walk-ins. A multi-dimensional celebration of life, re-birth and inspiration. A love story that stretches across eternity.
