Echoes of Eden: Reflections on Christianity, Literature, and the Arts Jerram Barrs

Art is all around you.

Yet few of us can effectively explain why certain movies, books, plays, and songs resonate so profoundly within us, and more importantly how they attest to God's character.

Professor Jerram Barrs gives us the three key elements for evaluating great art. He then puts those qualifiers to the test by investigating five of the world's most influential authors—empowering us to better understand the character of God and helping others to know him too.
