Kris Hardwick is introverted, 46, overweight, balding and in a rut with his marriage. When he meets up with his childhood best friend, the slim, good-looking, red-headed extrovert Paul Robinson, he is reminded of the sexual escapades of his youth and sees that his womanising bachelor friend is still having fun. Not only is he jealous of Paul, he realises that he is sexually attracted to him and always has been. Kris begins to examine his life and his sexuality and with trepidation embarks on a voyage of sexual discovery that will take him to the dark side of married men's male male relationships. If you are in a relationship with a middle-aged man you need to read this book. WARNING This book contains explicit sex scenes between consenting adults, many of them male/male.
