Taken by the Forbidden Highlander

Angus Artair is a wandering highlander preparing for imminent battle with his own kind. Along the way however, he comes across a band of marauders who has targeted a village full of weaklings. His conscience plagues him until he decides to save a woman he met from certain violence by infiltrating the raid and bringing her to safety. He offers to save her and her husband from the attack, but no good deed goes unpunished. It turns out she is very unhappy in her marriage and her husband is a violent-tempered ruffian himself. When he takes her to a safe place, they find themselves alone together and irresistibly attracted to each other. A woman in need of protection and good sex is always a highlander's weakness. But will all this distraction cause him to lose focus of upcoming battles?

The Highlander's Captive Bride

It's not easy being immortal and the worst part of it is not imminent death, new challengers or even the bloody battles from mortals who fear you. Sometimes the hardest part is walking away from those you love. It's been a long time since Seumas the highlander has known love or kindness. When he meets Torra, an innocent but strong-minded woman with virtue, he can't help but feel something. But her father is a highlander-hater and has made clear that no such immortal man will be allowed to taint his family. As if things couldn't get any more tragic, Seumas is also being called by two roving highlanders in the area. What path will he ultimately take? A Highlander's Lost Love is an erotic drama following the story of an immortal finding love with a family and putting away harsh memories of yesterday.
