Crown of the Pharaohs (A Sean Livingstone Adventure: Book 1) Andrew D. Connell

Fifteen-year-old Sean Livingstone embarks on the adventure of a lifetime with his father, an archaeologist who has just unearthed an ancient device beneath the paws of the Sphinx in Egypt. The discovery catapults them back through time, thousands of years before the pharaohs to a forgotten past where merciless aliens dominate the planet.

Humans are slaves on the brink of extinction. Monsters thought to exist only in mythology lurk at every corner. Separated from his dad and running for his life, Sean's problems have only just begun.

With the past, present, and future hanging on his every action, only Sean has the power to rewrite history. And save the world in the process.
