For anyone that knows what a Freerunner is, the term conjures up thoughts of self-expression, freedom, fluidity, and movement. In a nutshell, Karima J. Sphere's new book Freerunner is a brilliant expression of creatively authored abstract experiences and ideas. It's an infusion of poetic art, involving spoken word and free verse poetry. Written as a collection of ten poems, Freerunner is not status quo poetry nor based on conventional poetic expression. It's authentic thought. Through his book, Sphere articulates a level of openness and clarity. "In this book, I share my personal truth. It's honest poetry that invites the audience to find their 'A-ha' moment. Readers will find that the entire work evolves into one true emotion that breaks free to create a mosaic of different feelings. Just like the enthusiasts that work hard to master the sport, Sphere's book Freerunner, moves through various elements, narrating the impact it's made on the life of its author. This book is similar to the movie "Slam"
