CHAKANA: Secret Teachings of an Ancient Andean Mystery School Roger Calverley

In ancient Peru there existed a mystery school dating back as far as Lemuria. Remnants of this school can still be seen today in the pre-inca stonework of the Coricancha, on Sacsaywaman and elsewhere around Cusco. Time out of mind, the CHAKANA was an initiatory symbol, a talisman of incalculable spiritual power used by initiates of this mystery school in a variety of ways. CHAKANA is a re-discovery and awakening of latent mystical powers of this talisman which, when carved into a stone pendant becomes a portal into other domains of consciousness. When the golden sun disc was taken from the Coricancha and hidden, at the time of the Spanish invasion, the ancient wisdom quickly faded and was almost lost. Now the secret teachings and lore of the CHAKANA are brought to life in a work that reaches into the dim past, uncovers hidden secrets and lays bare the modern powers of this master key to guide its keeper to the deepest experiences of spiritual initiation.
