Nothing is quite as it seems in Charley's life. Of noble birth, her current situation does not befit her status and the world she has been forced to inhabit is full of subterfuge, lies, and deceptions. Some of which she actively participates in freely, but others which she does not.

The past plays its part in twisting her emotions, in ways she cannot predict and in following her traitorous father's orders, she becomes embroiled in a plot she wishes she had no part in but is in right up to her neck

Set against the backdrop of the French Revolution and played out within Regency era England, this short story explores her feelings for her captive, a nobleman named Robert.

She knows only too well his philandering reputation, but will her head overrule her feelings or will she finally let her heart decide what is to be done?
