It Was 2052 J. Richardson

Jackson grew up in the post catastrophe small town of Unity. Over thirty years since an EMP struck the earth and caused worldwide chaos, America is far from healed and back to normal. The young man longs to venture out from home. The large Texas city of Dallas looms one hundred miles to the west. Still only a shadow of it's past life as a bustling metro city, the city is growing and changing. He has made his decision to give the city a try. Will he find work, friends and a new life there? Or will adventure and danger await him? The unknown pulls him into new territory and unexpected events will shape his future.
