“Love is Everything”

These words may sound very simple but there is a much deeper meaning attached to them.

In the experience called life, we often get so involved in our daily chores that we miss out on the most important ingredient to it called “Love”

This book is a collection of all the thoughts and poems which I penned down at various points in my life.

Some happy and some sad moments are captured in these pages. They will take you through my journey of first love to break up to losing myself to loving again to love myself to eventually, finding myself!
