Black President 2: The World Will Never Be The Same

Novel writing, MADE FOR TELEVISION. In Episode 2, things are shaking up at the White House, especially with a new Black President occupying the Oval Office. Stephen C. Jefferson and his wife, Raynetta, are real forces to be reckoned with. While he's busy trying to get Congress in line to create new gun control legislation, she's actively working to keep her trail of lies a secret. The president's mother is also back on the scene, and her drinking habits have switched to high gear. Without a doubt, he has his hands full with her, as well as with his multiple enemies. One who comes in the form of a reporter he's been "entertaining," and by any means necessary, she now wants the president to face his demise. She's definitely not the only one, and as secret service fails to do their job, their open-door policy puts the president in a position where he'll be forced to save his own life.
