Marianne Lester is a successful journalist in a field that is mostly dominated by men.

She grew up in a household of brothers, and a father that loves football and any other sport that they could get their hands on. Instead of sitting on the sidelines, she had found sports to be something that she enjoyed. In fact, she had made a life out of doing something that she loved. She knew of Xavier Peters the star quarterback for one of her favorite teams. Nobody had been able to get his story and she was determined to make him sit down and take her seriously. What she wasn't expecting was that Xavier would find her compelling enough to tell her how he had come to be where he was today. That story tugged at her heart, and before long they would find themselves doing the nasty on a surface that is quite unexpected.
