Are you hearing this?

Stricken by an illness that left her deaf and mute from a young age, Fay Griffin has lived a quiet life just trying to make it through every day.

That is.... until she stumbles upon the job— and love of a lifetime.

Fay and her new best friend Emma begin learning about each other, their similar lives and mysterious new ability they discover that helps them communicate.

When they begin to fall in love, everything else seems to fall into place.

But when they discover their workplace may have some hidden secrets that could change everything, Fay and Emma must put their heads together and save their jobs — and each other.

Author's Note: This ebook contains mature language and themes, intended for adults only.
