Book seven of the nine-book short story series picks up with Keston's shocking revelation to Phoenix. Was it just a simple misunderstanding or was it something deeper? Will they be able to work through it or was that the beginning of the end?

Qier's world is changing right before our eyes and he doesn't know how to deal with it all. His relationship with Keston is only getting worse and he doesn't see a good ending in sight. To top it off, he's still battling his internal demons with Kookie. In Qier's time of distress, he thinks back to his past with Phoenix. Why has Phoenix been a thorn in Qier's side? Why does Qier hate Phoenix so much? What did Phoenix do? What exactly happened in Miami all those years ago?

Qier's issues with Phoenix, coupled with his problems with Keston and Qier's relationship with Kookie, is all leading Qier towards a nervous breakdown. Will he get the help he needs in time or does what Qier mistakenly stumble upon push him over the edge? Nothing will ever be the same after this shocking jaw-dropper.

While the intricate web of secrets, lies and jealousy continue to tangle, you must remember that everything isn't always as it seems—or is it?
