This book contains 1596 cemetery stone inscriptions for the Old and New Calvary Cemetery located in Clermont County, Ohio, Washington Township. It includes some of the oldest burials in the county and of the earliest families to settle in the area. In the old section, a lot of the stones were found buried deep under the ground and hand written dating back to the first decade of 1800. This is a great supporting research book for the tombstone photos on the Clermont County Genealogical Society website.
