Madeline: Bride of Nebraska (American Mail-Order Brides Book 37) Mia Blackwood

Madeline Nelson suddenly finds herself without a job when the textile factory she had worked in since her husband's death burned to the ground. Without any prospects for a new job, she decides to become a mail order bride. Can she put her past behind her and find love out west? Or will her second marriage be as much of a disaster as her first?

Caleb Stark has spent the past fifteen years saving the family ranch from ruin and making it profitable once again. He never had the time nor inclination to look for a wife, but now that things were running smoothly and he had the house to himself, he was ready to settle down and start a family. Would the ghosts of his past prevent him from having the future he has longed for?
