Quote from the book: "Now what I want you to know about the Sabbath commandment is that the Sabbath is unique in the Ten Commandments because, unlike the other commandments, which need only to be preached and proclaimed, the Sabbath has to be proved. I mean, if a minister stood up in any church, whether it's a Sunday keeping church or a Sabbath keeping church, he stands up into the pulpit and says "today's presentation is on the seventh commandment, thou shall not commit adultery." Does he need to spend anytime proving that commandment is still valid in this present age? The answer is NO."

About: David Asscherick is an ordained minister of the Gospel and a sought after speaker both nationally and internationally. A former extreme sports enthusiast and punk rocker, David turned his life over to the God of the Bible at the age of 24. Since that time, he has traveled all over the world preaching and teaching the Good News of Jesus Christ. He is presently the director of a missionary training center called ARISE Institute located in Sonora, Ca. He is happily married to his wife, Violeta, and is the father of two fun-filled and energetic boys, Landon and Jabel.
