Filled with checklists, links and resource listings all in one place, this is a Beginner's Handbook on creating a book-trailer or short video to garner interest for either a new book, or ebook, or for a book that has been around for awhile and needs more promotion to stimulate sales. Using Creative Commons Licensing, you will discover that it is easier than it appears to create a compelling book-trailer or advertising video for your book. The appendices include links to free images and video clips, audio and sound and dozens of online video sharing sites you didn't know existed. Great for students just starting out making book-trailers or YouTube video makers searching for an easy how-to manual.

Think of this book as your toolbox for a successful short movie-making vocation, for fun and personal enjoyment, to sell more copies of your own books, or to create a potential business in a field that is set to explode.
