The Letter - New Adult Romance

Was working at a hospice the right job for a kind, caring person like Kiah? Especially when she struggles with her emotional attachment to these terminally ill patients, daily. For her it's as if she is losing a loved one over and over again. Equally a hospice is hardly the best place to find love. Oddly enough, somehow Kiah manages to do both, when she's forced to make a promise she had no way of keeping.

Gabe Cormack, a successful busy man can turn his hand to most things. However there is nothing he can do when his wife is diagnosed with a terminal illness. But watch and wait. His lovely wife refuses to let him care for her and checks herself into a hospice. Gabe is by her side every spare minute of the day and well into the night. Nevertheless, his heart is broken when he isn't there for his wife's passing and blames everyone concerned with her care. Especially her assigned nurse Kiah.

Can Kiah persuade Gabe to let her help him through his pain of loss, and at the same time keep her promise to his beautiful wife--without leaving herself vulnerable in the process?
