The Rampa Story T. Lobsang Rampa

The powers of the Lama are unsurpassed in the West: here are insights into the Akashic records, reincarnation as well as Rampa's journey to unexplored dimensions and realms where he encounters a variety of spiritual teachers and has adventures with supernatural beings.

Excerpt From The Rampa Story...

"For months past the most trusted of lamas, acting as mental carriers, had painfully trudged the hundreds of miles from Lhasa carrying the ancient Secrets to where they would be forever safe from the traitorous Communists. Here too, with infinite toil and suffering, had been brought the Golden Figures of past Incarnations to be set up and venerated in the heart of a mountain Sacred objects, age-old writings, and the most venerable and learned of priests were here in safety. . ."

THE RAMPA STORY is considered by many to be T Lobsang Rampa's most important work next to the Third Eye and Cave of the Ancients. He has long been unavailable in the U.S.

About the Author
