White Cat, Black Cat Chiki Kikuchi

There once was a white cat and a black cat, who were never far apart. They spent all their days playing together in the grass, in the mud, or among the colorful trees. They would stop by the river and watch the sunset. Although they loved each other very much, they were very different; while the white cat was admired for her beauty, the black cat was ignored. The gorgeous art captivates readers throughout and color-splashed black and white brush stroke illustrations also show the dynamic sense of movement on each page. Told in simple sentences, White Cat, Black Cat is a story about the best of friends, who love, cherish, and each admires the qualities in the other that set them apart.
