Being the head of the State meant that I needed to keep everything under control, even my own illicit secret.

Things were already heating up at my work place as my popularity began to take a serious hit. My personal life was even more messed up when I and my wife discovered the secret that my daughter had been hiding. Then, there was her best friend, an innocent-looking girl with a steamy hot body, who was staying with us for the summer. What decision did I decide to take? Where was my life leading to? Only god might have a say in that.

A 5000 word story that contains strong language.
