Toes in the Sand: My Journey from Domestic Engineer to Entrepreneur Lisa Carol Pulliam

Do you ever find yourself asking questions like: “How come my life feels mundane when my days are completely crazy busy from the time I smell the first brew of coffee until my worn out body finally falls into bed at night?” Do you ever pray, scream, or cry out, “Lord there’s got to be more to life than what I am living right now...” Maybe you have made the choice to stay home with your children, or you have attempted a number of careers out of financial desperation, but nothing fulfills the hunger in your soul. It may be time to shake the sand off of your perfectly pedicured toes, step boldly into your boat, and untie it from the dock. There is an ocean of opportunity waiting for you to explore.
