Camille Claudé and Rodin - focuses on the relationship between two headstrong artists who worked in close collaboration for a while then parted, leading to misfortune for both of them, but for Camille in particular.

(from inside dust cover) Introduction- This catalogue and the accompanying exhibition follow the mingling paths of two sculptors, Auguste Rodin and Camille Claudé, focusing on the works that bear witness to their artistic and personal relations. It is therefore a genuine comparative exhibition of the work of both artists, comprising sixty-one works by Rodin and seventy-three works by Camille Claudé...spanning...from the early 1880s until the late 1890s.
