"When the sun goes down in Chicago, the lights come up on "Etc.", where everyone is invited. When Wren Adams' parents are tragically killed, he finds himself with a new business opportunity in his lap , and a new city under his feet. As the owner of an unlikely hotspot, and with a crew of colorful cohorts by his side, Wren is determined to make the most of his new, "Ten year plan." However, a box of forgotten letters, and the annoyingly mysterious Patrick Wright, leads Wren to discover that the last thing you can do with life is plan it." A portion of sales from the book will go to help those in the GLBT community.
