When God miraculously intervenes in the life of a desperate woman forced to face death, she is astonished. But her lifestyle remains unchanged until her world turns upside down again, and an incredible spiritual encounter leads to a difficult dilemma. She must focus on two possible choices: each one is fearful, painful, dangerous, and will determine the quality of the rest of her life. The path she chooses will require absolute faith in the promises of God to sustain her on her life journey through physical pain, paralysis, heartbreak, an economic turn-around, terror of persecution, loss of loved ones, spiritual warfare, a terminal health diagnosis, and a violent physical attack. As her personal relationship develops with the Lord Jesus, the written Word becomes the spoken Word, and the spoken Word becomes the living Word of God. The Word fills the emptiness of her heart and introduces her to miraculous healings, the comforting instruction of the Holy Spirit, and the knowledge that through God nothing is impossible. He is greater than any circumstance she might face. A potentially fatal situation compels her to test her faith by speaking to the mountain in her life. The result of this testing transforms her life through the mercy and love of Almighty God. Finally, her spiritual journey leads her to experience the revelation of 1 Peter 2:9, "Ye should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of the darkness into His marvelous light"
