Undone, Volume 1 Callie Harper

Take one bad boy rock god. Mix slowly with one wholesome librarian. Add a dash of paparazzi, a twist of scandal, and you won't believe how good this dish tastes.

Ash

It's pretty easy being a rock god. Party. Perform. P*ssy. Repeat. I'm 26 and it's worked for me for years. Until I was caught ripping out the heart of America's Sweetheart in a video gone viral. Now #HatePlayerAsh is trending on Twitter, she's writing a song about how much I suck and I'm in desperate need image rehab, fast.

Good thing paparazzi chased me into that library. Had I not ducked under that desk I never would have found myself next to the long, sexy legs and disapproving gaze of Anika Ivanov. In my world of use and get used, she's a unicorn. A kind, 24-year-old, hard-working, family-oriented children's librarian. My agent agrees, she's the one to set everything right. All she needs to do is fake a month-long public romance, let the world see me fall hard for her, then dump me in a brutal, public display. It's genius.

Now I just have to convince her to agree. And convince myself that the only reason I want to spend the month with her is to improve my image. It's not her full, luscious lips or her soft, seductive laugh or those fantasies I keep having of tying her down to my bed as I make her quiver and pant and call out my name.

Ana

Ash Black. In my library. Under my desk. It's hard to believe it happened. I've listened to his voice so many times, my favorite soundtrack as I walk the streets of New York. My secret bad boy crush, the smoldering, shirtless star of the tabloids, all muscles and tattoos. Then one day he shows up and kisses me in my break room.

What's even crazier is how he wants me to spend the next month. At his shows in L.A., San Francisco and Vegas, candlelight dinners in New York and Paris. He wants the world to believe he's fallen in love. With me.

I've got to say no. He's a walking disaster with a dirty mouth and wicked hands that melt my panties right off of me. This month would take everything in my well-ordered, neat little life and shake it up like a snowglobe.

Then why am I so tempted to say yes?

NOTE: Undone is a three-volume hot adult romance. It's the second story in the Beg for It series about the dominant, alpha males in Ash's family and the strong, sexy women who make them finally meet their match.
