Jeanie Bennett's matchmaking record is flawless. Over the last ten years, she has built her matchmaking business on her innate ability to connect wealthy men with attractive, capable women.

Jeanie's New York-based six week dating program is unique. She creates tailored challenges for her clients based on their backgrounds, hopes and fears. Jeanie is also willing to manufacture challenges based on fictions. Couples are only allowed to indulge their physical desires after a full month has passed, a rule Jeanie enforces with uncanny ability. After resisting temptation for Jeanie's month, when her couples finally find themselves between the sheets, the sex is explosive. If a couple can navigate through Jeanie's obstacles and allow their passion to simmer before being released, Jeanie guarantees they will enjoy a relationship that can endure to eternity.

Jeanie's latest client, David Hughes, is a retired NFL football player and successful businessman, who is ready to get married. Jeanie knows just the woman for him. Hannah Daniels is a former professional ballet dancer who has returned home to care for her mother and brothers after her father's unexpected death.

Hannah's reluctance to join Jeanie's program, David's demons from his past and their undeniable physical attraction threaten to not only torpedo their growing love, but Jeanie's unblemished record as well. Can Hannah and David go the distance? Will their relationship endure to eternity?
