Kiara (Turnabout Is Fair Play): Revenge Series Book 2 Ashlee Shades

"Then she started planning her revenge. She was going to use this all against him and have her fun while she did it, because if he could have his fun on the side and still come back to her, then she could do the same, right? Turnabout is fair play, after all."

Kiara was happy, in love, and content with her life. She had an amazing boyfriend - a man she loved and adored - and a terrific job. You could say that she was "living the life" The only thing that she would change would be to have her boyfriend travel a little less, but travel was part of his job, so she accepted it.

Then one night there is a phone call that destroys it all. Her perfect life isn't so perfect after all...

Her perfect boyfriend had betrayed her in one of the most hurtful ways possible. Not only did she hear him speaking to the other person, but she followed him to the hotel to meet up with them. She watched through the curtains...

After picking up the pieces of her broken heart, and crying until her tears were dried up, she decided to seek her revenge in a hot and fun way. A way that would really upset Carter.

How? Do you you ask...

Well, they say that "Turnabout is fair play" right?
