Pathways to Adventure Frank E. Rowlen

Author Frank E. Rowlen lives his life in pursuit of adventures—and he’s had more than his fair share.

Now, he collects the stories of his various travels, journeys, and escapades into one place, providing readers with a delightful account of a life well lived.

Detailing his experiences body surfing in California, house-boating on Lake Powell, hiking in Zion National Park and the Swiss Alps, rafting the Rogue River, and cruising across Polynesia, among others, Rowlen paints eye-opening pictures that transport readers into the heart of his journeys.

A firm believer in the importance of planning to make time for adventures, Rowlen is also aware that not everyone has the ability to explore the world the way he does, and the heart of his expeditions is a willingness to go through life with open eyes, a teachable spirit, and a thirst for adventure—an attitude that can be employed no matter where you are.

So whether you’re eager to scale Mount Whitney or visiting the world through the pages of this book, you’ll be delighted and inspired to step out of your comfort zone, seize the day, and live the life you’ve been given to the fullest.
